Student Tuition Recovery Fund Disclosures.

Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

Students attending programs at our institution may be administratively withdrawn for the following reasons:

- Disruptive and/or offensive and inappropriate behavior in class or outside of class to fellow classmates and/or faculty and staff
- As the result of an investigation of plagiarism and cheating in which it was concluded the student did commit such actions
- Being absent for more than seven (7) consecutive calendar days with no communication with the school to excuse the absences or otherwise seek to arrange a leave of absence

Refund Policy

What follows is the sole refund policy for this institution. No other refund policy shall be enforced other than this policy, as specified in our institutional catalog and enrollment agreement.

Timing and Documentation of Refunds

This institution shall refund any credit balance on the student's account within 45 days after the date of the student's cancellation of, completion of, or withdrawal from, the educational program in which the student was enrolled. This institution shall provide the student with documentation specifying the amount of a refund, the method of calculating the refund, the date the refund was made, and the name and address of the person or entity to which the refund was sent, as well as the payment method of refund (check, cash, ACH transfer, Zelle, etc.).

How Refunds are Calculated in the Event of a Cancellation

If a student cancels their enrollment according to the Cancellation Policy, this institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), as specified in the catalog and enrollment agreement. Any fees collected related to the Student Tuition Recovery Fund shall be refunded. Any fees collected for educational materials otherwise noted as nonrefundable shall also be refunded.

How Refunds are Calculated in the Event of a Withdrawal

The Refund Policy for students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund. A pro rata refund pursuant to section 94919(c) or 94920(d) or 94927 of the Code shall be no less than the total amount owed by the student for the portion of the educational program provided subtracted from the amount paid by the student, calculated as follows:

{A) The amount of the refund owed to the student equals the total charges paid by the student, minus the daily or hourly tuition charge for the program (total institutional charge minus any non-refundable charges, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days or hours the student attended prior to withdrawal, and minus any non-refundable charges. Any hours or days prior to the student's last day of attendance for which the student was scheduled to attend but was absent shall be included in the calculation of days or hours attended.

All amounts that the student has paid shall be subject to a pro rata refund unless the enrollment agreement and the refund policy outlined in the catalog specify a non refundable deposit or application fee, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), or non-refundable amounts paid for educational materials, or both. This institution does charge both a non-refundable deposit as well as non-refundable amounts paid for educational materials; these amounts are specified in our Charges and Fees section in the catalog and on the student's enrollment agreement. Please refer to the Fees section of the catalog and the enrollment agreement for an itemization of charges that are non-refundable as part of a pro rata refund, as well as a description of the conditions under which those items may or may not be refundable (for example only: fees for hard-copy textbooks could be deemed refundable on a case-by-case basis if the materials are returned in a reuseable and unsullied state).

Refunds to 3rd Party Payors, as applicable

If a refund is made to a third party on behalf of a student who has cancelled or withdrawn from their enrollment in an educational program, the institution shall provide the student, within 45 calendar days after the date of cancellation or withdrawal, a written notice, as described in section 71920(b)(10), in hard-copy or electronic format, itemizing the amount refunded to each third party, the name of the third party, and the date of each refund, as applicable.

Refunds of Payments Collected and Payable to 3rd Party Entities, as applicable

If this institution has collected money from, or on behalf of, a student for transmittal on the student's behalf to a third party for a bond, library usage, or fees for a license, application, or examination and the institution has not paid the money to the third party or has not yet been billed or invoiced by the third party at the time of the student's cancellation or withdrawal, the institution shall refund the money to the student within 45 calendar days of the student's cancellation or withdrawal.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

This agreement is legally binding when signed by the student and accepted by the institution.
